GIRLS

Girl's middle school age have the option to try-out for a more competitive division. In this division, practices are once per week for 3 hours. There is no guaranteed playing time in this division and girls are played based on position and skill. In the regular middle school division it is mandatory rotation and every girl has equal playing time. If your daughter tries out for the competitive division and does not make a team they are automatically drafted to a mandatory rotation team.

COMMUNICATION

All communication is by email, make sure you put a legible email address on the appropriate line. You will receive an email after registration closes with information about try-outs, parent meeting, etc. After all teams are drafted you will receive an email with your team roster, coach contact information, practice night/location and game schedule.

HIGH SCHOOL

Any girl who plays on their high school volleyball team in the fall is eligible to play CBFO volleyball in the spring session only. The High School division girls will play based on position without guaranteed playing time. If there is enough interest we will have a competitive division for high school in the spring season.
